As the autumn approaches Chico's a hero yet again by saving his friend Maureen the cow from drowning with the help of the fire brigade, who also turn up in a later chapter to save a Halloween party.

Chico makes many new friends in this book, along with the prettiest dog he's ever seen.

Janet Roberts

After teaching for over 25 years and reading thousands of books to children Janet had always wanted to write children's books. So after retiring early, moving onto a narrowboat with her teacher and musician husband Mike, Janet had the headspace and wrote her first book about Chico Chugg, a little dog who lives on the waterways. There are currently 4 books in the series.
